Have you received a Postcard from the American Legion Dept. Of Arizona?

Here is what it is about. The Dept. Of Arizona is going to publish a book to be released next Summer. They want to verify your name and address for that book. They also want us to submit pictures with captions for that book, they want to get our stories and publish them too. They also want us to buy that book at the price of $100. They also have a couple shirts and a travel bag plus a ball cap, all for $330. You can call if you want. Just so you know, expect a big sales pitch if you do call.

Support our Vets: Not just in the Holiday Season, these things are needed year-round. The Vets at the VA in Prescott are always in need of a variety of personal items. All items should be new in thier original packaging. Brought to the Yarnell American Legion or delivered to Voluntary Services at the VA in Prescott. Building 15 (the Theater) , room 106. Monetary donations are also accepted so items can be purchased. Checks should be made payable "Northern AZ VA HCS" and sent to Voluntary Service, 500 HWY 89 North, Prescott 86303. Here is a list of some of the things needed:

Hand Soap, Laundry Detergent, Pens/Pencils, Toothpaste, Toothbrushes, Combs/ Brushes, Shaving Cream, Disposable Razors, Postal Forever Stamps, Socks (Men various sizes), T-Shirts (Men and Women's, various sizes), Underwear for men and women, Collared Shirts (Men and Women's, various sizes), Dockers (Men and Women's, various sizes), Prepaid phone minute cards, Healthy packaged snacks (nuts, bars, etc.).

Contact the VA at 928-776-6013 with other items you may wish to donate as the above is just a sampling of what is needed. You can leave donations at the Post.

Shuttle Service at the Prescott VA: If you have been to the Prescott VA you know parking is limited. There is a lot of parking available, but it is a distance from the Hospital. To make these parking spots more usable the Prescott VA has instituted and expanded a Shuttle Service. Anyone can use it; Patients, Visitors and Employees. There are two Shuttle routes with regular stops. Plus, you can call 928 776-6013 (ext. 6013 from a VA courtesy phone) the Shuttle will pick you up anywhere on the VA Campus and take you to where you need to go. When you are finished with your appointment the Shuttle will take you back to your car.

AzAirNet: "AzAirNet" is the Internet provider for the Post. If you need the Password, ask your Bartender. If you are interested check them out at, "<http://www.azairnet.com/>". Support your Post. If you do subscribe to their service tell them you were referred by "American Legion Post 79". Thanks.

T-Shirts: We are selling Legion Family T-Shirts. Support your Post and buy a good looking shirt. Proceeds go toward upgrading the kitchen.
